WCF PERFORMANCE APPLICATION

The International Child Art Foundation (“ICAF”) is producing its 6th World Children’s Festival (“WCF”) on July 30th - August 1st of 2021 at The National Mall across from the U.S. Capitol. The WCF will be a timely celebration of Creativity, Diversity, and Unity for the post-COVID world. The WCF set up at the Mall includes the 40x40-foot “World Stage” where only schoolchildren can showcase their talents.

Date _____ Name of Performance Group / Performer _____ (“Performer”) wants to apply to perform at the WCF under the following terms and conditions:

1. Performer understands and agrees that the WCF is a three-day educational event which has nearly 24 performances and approximately one hundred workshops and activities each day. The selection of performers is made by ICAF using as a set of criteria that includes exceptional and memorable performances, diversity, and different types of performances. The selected performers are required to be at the WCF at the National Mall on all three festival days to attend workshops, participate in activities, and learn from other performances. Hence, the Performers presence at the festival site is required from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm on July 30th, July 31st and August 1st. If Performer arrives just for its performance and leaves once the performance is over, Performer will not be allowed to perform at the WCF and will be liable for damages under this Agreement.
2. Performer understands and agrees that the WCF is produced by ICAF to exclusively promote its mission and the purpose of the WCF as the world’s premier children’s celebration, and hence the Performer agrees that ICAF has a right to film, live cast, and photograph each and all performances, and if Performer films or photographs its own performance or any other performance, these films or photographs are co-owned by ICAF and Performer as shared property. Any public use or broadcast for any purpose whatsoever, including any commercial use, of said shared property must be pre-approved and agreed to by ICAF in writing prior to such use or broadcast.
3. Performer understands that the WCF is an outdoor event which could be disrupted or delayed if it rains or because of security reasons by the Park Police or postponed if COVID-19 persists.
4. Performer agrees to include the handle #WCF2021 for any and all tweets on and about the WCF.
5. While ICAF does not charge any performance fee, Performer agrees to arrange for travel or transport to, and accommodation in, Washington, D.C. and arrange for meals, drinks and snacks during and at the WCF.

6. The only WCF ticketed event is the WCF Awards Banquet on August 2nd for which Performer can purchase in advance the tickets at a discounted price.
7. At the Awards Banquet, the Performer will receive ICAF's 'Exceptional Performance Certificate.' If Performer does not attend the Banquet, the Certificate will be mailed to the Performer in September 2021.
8. Performer must provide ICAF on or before June 30, 2021 a complete list of ALL the equipment Performer will bring to The National Mall so that ICAF can obtain security clearance from the National Park Police.
9. Performer must also provide ICAF on or before June 30, 2021 a complete list of ALL the equipment the Performer requests ICAF to arrange, which ICAF will make best efforts to provide but does not guarantee that requested equipment will be available for Performer.
10. Performer agrees to abide by any instruction of ICAF staff pertaining to its participation in and performance at the WCF.
11. Performer agrees to hold harmless ICAF along with any of its officers, employees or agents, respectively, from all liability, costs, injury and damages that may be incurred by or to any person affiliated with or to any property owned by Performer that may be caused by an activity, condition or event arising out of the performance, preparation for the performance or non-performance or by any and all changes in the performance schedule, including cancellation of the performance or the replacement and substitution of Performer by ICAF. This "hold harmless" clause is not intended to indemnify Performer against any liability, costs, damage, insurance, attorney's fees or related legal and other costs that it may incur as a result of entering into this agreement.
12. Performer agrees to arrange the necessary medical insurance and liability insurance for the protection of equipment and persons.
